

Soybean CROSSWORD

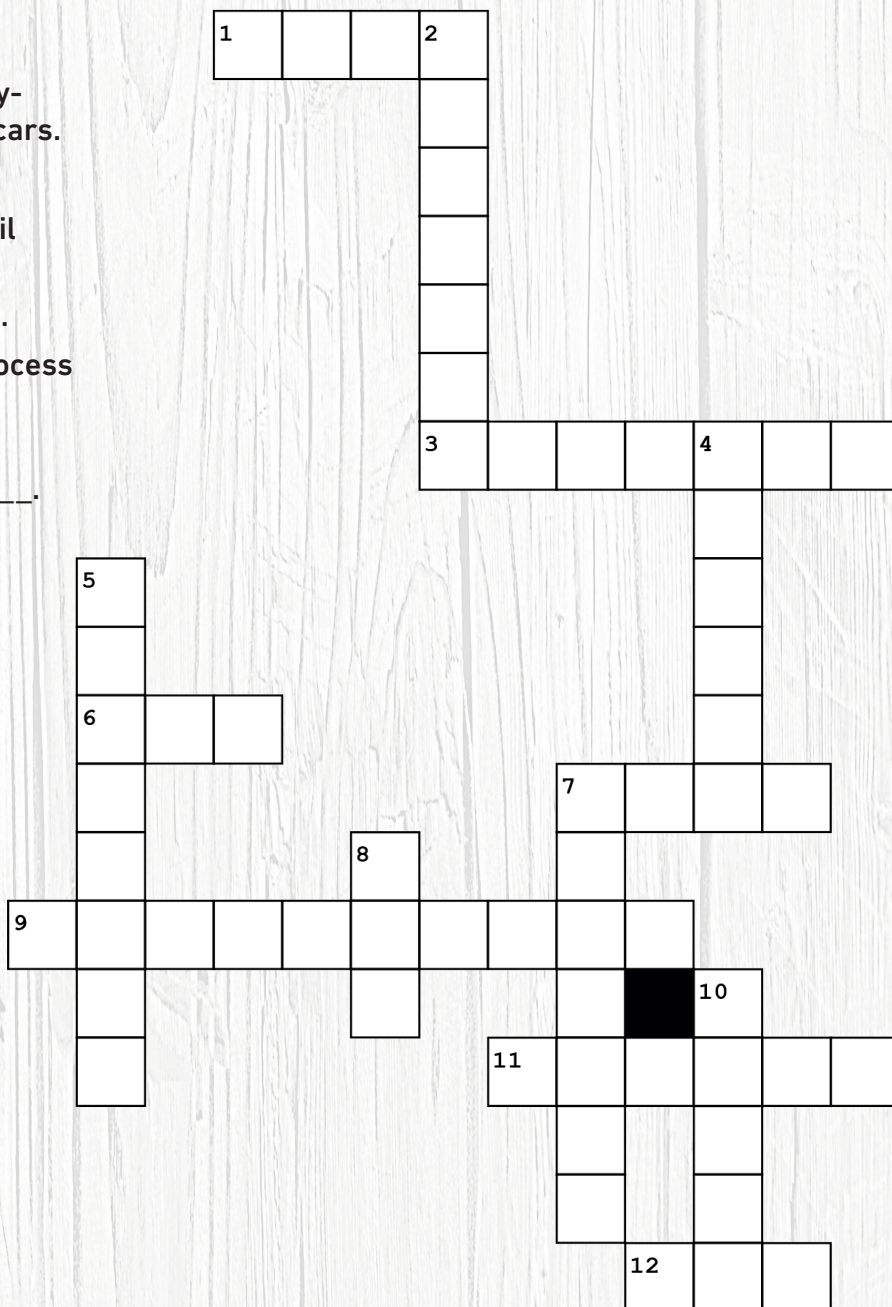

ACROSS:

1. Henry _____ experimented with soy-based plastics in the production of cars.
3. _____ is the soybean main root.
6. Soybean _____ is the main edible oil used in the United States.
7. Soybean plants grow 3-5 _____ tall.
9. George _____ Carver invented a process for making paints and stains from soybeans.
11. The Soybean plant is a type of _____.
12. Soy _____ is used in over 95% of America's daily newspapers.

DOWN:

2. _____, Illinois is the Soybean Capital of the World.
4. During the Civil War soybeans were used in place of _____ beans because real _____ was scarce.
5. Illinois plants enough soybeans to cover nine million _____ fields.
7. Soybean plants sprout small _____ which will grow into small pods of soybeans.
8. Soybeans are the number _____ ingredient in vegetable oil.
10. The Soybean is used for animal and _____ consumption, as well as consumer and industrial used.

Soybean FUN FACTS

DID YOU KNOW?

- Soybean oil is the main edible oil used in the United States.
- Soy ink is used in over 95% of America's daily newspapers.
- Henry Ford experimented with soy-based plastics in the production of cars.
- Illinois plants enough soybeans to cover nine million football fields.
- George Washington Carver invented a process for making paints and stains from soybeans.
- Decatur, Illinois is the Soybean Capital of the World.
- The soybean is used for animal and human consumption, as well as consumer and industrial use.
- Soybean plants grow 3-5 feet tall.
- The soybean is a type of legume.
- Soybeans are the number one ingredient in vegetable oil.
- Soybean plants sprout small flowers which grow into small pods of soybeans.
- Radical is the soybeans main root.
- During the Civil War soybeans were used in place of coffee beans because real coffee was scarce.

ANSWERS:

Across: 1. Ford | 3. Radical | 6. Oil | 7. Feet | 9. Washington | 11. Legume | 12. Ink Down: 2. Decatur | 4. Coffee | 5. Football | 8. One | 10. Human