

First Steps for Farmland Owners

Learn what to do next with your inherited farmland.

New to farmland ownership? Join us for a beginner-friendly program designed to help you navigate your next steps with confidence. Participants will gain practical insights on topics such as farmland values, setting fair cash rent, and conservation programs and lease addendums that can support environmental goals.

Whether you plan to actively manage your farmland or lease it out, this program will provide a helpful starting point for navigating your next steps with confidence.
