

Poultry CROSSWORD

ACROSS:

5. Male chickens are called _____.
6. Vaccines, paints, shampoos, and animal feed are a few examples of egg _____.
8. The color of the _____ depends on the hen's diet.
9. Illinois produces nearly 128 _____ dozen eggs each year.
10. _____ is the process of using light to look at the inside of an egg to determine the stage of development.
11. A baby turkey is called a _____.
13. Egg yolks have _____ grams of high-quality protein and naturally contain Vitamin D.

DOWN:

1. All poultry are _____ which means their young hatch out of an egg.
2. The term _____ refers to chickens, turkeys, ducks, ostriches, emus, quail, pheasants, geese, or pigeons raised for meat, feathers, or eggs.
3. Female chickens and turkeys are called _____.
4. Eggs we purchase from a store are not _____.
7. A baby chicken is called a _____.
10. The _____ of the eggshell is determined by the breed of chicken laying the egg.
12. Male turkeys are called _____.

LaSalle County
Farm Bureau®

Poultry

FUN FACTS

DID YOU KNOW?

- Illinois produces nearly 128 million dozen eggs each year.
- Candling is process of using light to look at the inside of an egg to determine the stage of development.
- Hens are female chicken and turkeys.
- A male chicken is a rooster.
- Toms are male turkeys.
- The color of the eggshell is determined by the breed of chicken laying the egg.
- The term poultry refers to chickens, turkeys, ducks, ostriches, emus, quail, pheasants, geese, or pigeons raised for meat, feathers, or eggs.
- The color of the yolk depends on the hen's diet.
- A baby turkey is a Poult.
- A baby chicken is a chick.
- All poultry are oviparous which means their young hatch out of an egg.
- Eggs we purchase from a store are not fertilized.
- Egg yolks have six grams of high-quality protein and naturally contain Vitamin D.
- Vaccines, paints, shampoos, and animal feed are a few examples of egg byproducts.

ANSWERS:

Across: 5. Roosters | 6. Byproducts | 8. Yolk | 9. Million | 10. Candling | 11. Poult | 13. Six
Down: 1. Oviparous | 2. Poultry | 3. Hens | 4. Fertilized | 7. Chick | 10. Color | 12. Toms