

WASPS

Wasps pollinate plants as they travel flower to flower in search of nectar. In addition to being a pollinator, wasps also prey on insects that damage plants, making them important biocontrol agents.

LaSalle County
Farm Bureau®